I have heard the voice of welcome greeting me,
welcoming me as part of the wider world,
rise up, welcome, welcome.

Whose voice is it?
Whose authority is it that I can see?
It's the district of the great harbour of Tara (the capital city).

Patrick Patton is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at Casper College. He is past chair of the department of music; conductor of the Casper College Collegiate Chorale, Women's and Men's Choirs, and the Contemporary Singers vocal jazz ensemble. He has served as artistic director of the Choral Arts Ensemble of Casper, a 24-voice adult chamber choir, and currently is the new director of the Helena Symphony Chorale, a 100-voice choir that prepares significant choral literature for performance with the Helena Symphony.

Dr. Patton holds the Doctor of Musical Arts and the Master of Music degrees in Choral Conducting from the Conservatory of Music at the University of Missouri in Kansas City. He received the Bachelor of Music in Education degree from the University of Wyoming.

He has made over 400 appearances nationally and internationally as guest conductor, adjudicator, and workshop clinician. Some of his credits include conductor of the All-Northwest ACDA Women's Choir, the All-State Honor Choirs in Colorado, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, West Virginia, and Wyoming. Most recently, Dr. Patton returned from London where he served as an adjudicator for the Heritage Music Festivals. He also spent time in Cambridge observing and working with Stephen Cleobury, director of the King's College Choir and Timothy Brown, director of the choirs at Clare College.

Dr. Patton is an active member of the National Honor Society Phi Kappa Phi, Music Educators National Conference, the American Choral Directors Association, and the International Association of Jazz Educators.
