CHORAL OR INSTRUMENTAL

Majors and non-majors alike participate in our many musical opportunities

80

The college owns 80 pianos, including several Steinways

1/3

More than 30% of our students participate in ensembles and lessons

40+

More than 40 music faculty with diverse specialties

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS

At Concordia, we don't let musical talent go unnoticed. Each year, we honor select first-year students with our Music Performance Scholarships. These four-year scholarships are awarded in voice, piano, strings, woodwind, brass, composition and percussion.

You don't need to be a music major to apply, either. 99% of our students receive financial aid. Visit our website at: ConcordiaCollege.edu/musicscholars

BECOME A MUSIC PROFESSIONAL

If you are interested in a music major, you have the choice of a Bachelor of Music degree or a Bachelor of Arts degree. In addition to music classes, hundreds of private lessons are taught each semester and the college has more than 19 music ensembles. Our music faculty are professional musicians and mentors who work to help students increase their musicianship.

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

PERFORMANCES

The ensembles perform throughout the year in various venues on and off campus. The large-scale events featuring music ensembles are the acclaimed Concordia College Christmas Concerts and tours throughout the United States and abroad.

CHRISTMAS MASTERPIECE

The Concordia Christmas Concert is one of the best-known Christmas events in the region. Nearly 400 student musicians in choirs and the orchestra perform for thousands in Moorhead and Minneapolis, an event filmed by Twin Cities Public Television. The backdrop for the event is a highly detailed mural depicting the Christmas story.

ON THE ROAD (OR OVER THE OCEAN)

The Concordia Choir, The Concordia Band and The Concordia Orchestra go on tour each year. Many tours are throughout the United States giving people outside our region a glimpse at the quality of student musicians. Every few years an ensemble will perform abroad. Recently, The Concordia Orchestra performed in Israel and Palestine and The Concordia Band performed in Spain. This year, The Concordia Choir will travel to Germany in May.

JOIN AN ENSEMBLE

Going to college doesn't mean leaving your musical passion behind. Whether you major in music or not, you can still sing in a choir or play in a band, orchestra, handbell or percussion ensemble.
