This activity is made possible by the voters of Minnesota through a grant from the Southeastern Minnesota Arts Council thanks to a legislative appropriation from the arts & cultural heritage fund.

Welcome to the Sing Out Loud Young Women's Choral Festival!

We are so excited to have the opportunity to share music and fellowship today through this very unique festival collaboration. Sparked by a shared vision and fostered through shared passion of the directors, today is about learning from each other, collaborating on wonderful music, and sharing together our excitement for the power women have when we come together through music.

Guest Clinician Phillip Swan

Phillip Swan is Co-Director of Choral Studies at Lawrence University and directs Cantata, the LU Women's Choir and Concert Choir, as well as teaching courses in conducting, musical theatre, & music education. Phillip has earned degrees in music education and choral conducting, with doctoral study of Eric Whitacre's choral music. He has led ensembles across the nation, chaired several ACDA Repertoire & Standards committees, received numerous awards, and wrote a chapter on conducting women's choirs titled "The Y Factor in an X Chromosome World" - which is certainly key to his role in today's festival!

Bella Voce Young Women's Choir

Shelly Winemiller, Director ~ Laurie Priniski, Accompanist

Bella Voce ("beautiful voice") creates an inviting and safe community in which young women in grades 9-12 share musical excellence, build confidence, & realize their highest potential to more broadly impact the world through the gift of music. Each year their concerts feature a charitable organization to raise awareness of social outreach relevant to the singers.

Lawrence Academy Bel Canto Choir

Karen Bruno, Director ~ Allison Shinnick, Accompanist

The Lawrence Academy of Music Girl Choir program provides quality choral opportunities for over 330 girls ranging from 8-18 in the Fox Valley region of northeastern Wisconsin. The program strives to create an atmosphere that encourages girls to respect uniqueness of others, to take risks that foster individual growth, and to continue development into self-assured young women. Bel Canto is the capstone choir of the program with musicians working together to learn the standard repertoire for women's voices.
