ECCO MORMORAR L'ONDE

Claudio Monteverdi (1567-1643)

Hear the murmuring waters, the rustle in the treetops as morning breezes stir the branches.

On verdent boughs the birds sing sweetly to greet the sun rise. The eastern sky is glowing. See how the dawn rises mirrored in the ocean. It brightens the skies and makes pearls of the dew drops. It decks the mountains with gold.

O lovely morning, gentle breezes are your heralds. You restore our hearts.

It Was A Lover and His Lass

RICHTE MICH, GOTT

THE BLUE BIRD

Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

Justice, O God! my cause against a people of unrighteous ways. For you are my God, and my stronghold, Why have you cast me aside? Must I walk like a mourner sorrowing, while the enemy prevails? Send forth your light and truth, Lord, that they shall lead me and be my guide to your holy hill, to your sacred dwelling place.

And then will I go to God's holy altar to my God, who is my joy and delight and life. I will praise you with the harp and thank you, my God.

O my soul, why be full of sorrow, and why remain deep in despair? Hope in the Lord! I will sing God's praises; God is my redeemer and savior.
